BUKIT JELUTONG COMMUNITY

Bukit Jelutong is a township located in Shah Alam, Selangor, Malaysia. here is an overview of Bukit Jelutong:

Community

- Bukit Jelutong is known for its diverse and vibrant community, consisting of people from various ethnic backgrounds and walks of life.
- The community actively participates in local events, programs, and initiatives to foster a sense of unity and belonging.

Figure 1: Bukit Jelutong residents planting the trees.

Geography

- Bukit Jelutong may have a hilly terrain, as the name "Bukit" means hill in Malay. The geography may include green areas, parks, and possibly natural features.

Figure 2: Eco community park

Residences

- The township is primarily residential, offering a mix of landed properties, including terrace houses, semi-detached houses, and possibly some high-rise developments.
- Residential areas are often well-planned with green spaces, parks, and recreational facilities.

Figure 3: An apartment in bukit jelutong

Community Facilities

- Community Centers: Facilities for community gatherings, events, and meetings may be present.
- Sports Facilities: Sports complexes, gyms, and sports fields may be available to promote a healthy and active lifestyle.
- Cultural Centers: Spaces dedicated to cultural activities, arts, and exhibitions may contribute to the cultural vibrancy of the community.

Figure 4: A large development project in Bukit Jelutong

Accessibility

One of the advantages of living in Bukit Jelutong is its strategic location with good connectivity to major highways. This makes it convenient for residents to travel to other parts of the Klang Valley, including Kuala Lumpur.

Figure 5: Lebuhraya Koridor Guthrie (GCE), di Bukit Jelutong, Shah Alam dari Persimpangan Shah Alam ELITE.

Education

There are educational institutions in and around Bukit Jelutong, providing options for families with school-going children. These may include primary and secondary schools as well as educational centres.

Figure 6: Sekolah Menengah Kebangsaan Bukit Jelutong